Fall 2005

"Put Your Children Into Pony Club: It Will Teach Them How To Handle Success!"

(Mainly Other Kids')

The main theme for this issue is our successes, starting with our Awards Banquet. COR has had a very good year, with plenty of winners to celebrate both on and off the field of play. For those of you who do not see your name in this issue, it is important to remember that success is not always measured by ribbons and trophies. The theme of our organization is "Loyalty, Sportsmanship, Character," not "Let's win every ribbon in sight." I do not know of any way to measure loyalty in general; it shows itself in individual situations. From what I saw at the Pony Club competitions I could get to this year, we are doing pretty well in the sportsmanship and character departments.

I do not mean to belittle the accomplishments of the winners we are going to list in this issue. By and large, they added skill (and yes, sometimes luck) to sportsmanship and character, and they give all the rest of you something to shoot for in 2006. Just keep in mind, though, that Central Ontario has winners - lots and lots of them - who didn't get to take home any trophies or ribbons this season.

2005 Awards Banquet

On October 22, Durham Pony Club again hosted the annual awards banquet at the Annandale Golf and Country Club in Ajax. The evening featured delicious food, a silent auction, and lots of fun. And of course, the year-end awards, most of them based on performance over the course of the season. Here they are, in order of presentation as your humble Editor and Assistant Master or Ceremonies remembers them.

Dressage

In the Entry Division, the Champion was Jennifer Pett of the Victoria Pony Club, who rode Thunder. The Entry Reserve was Emily Banks-Ng of the King Pony Club, riding Fat Chance.

The Starter Champion was Rachel Goodman of the Whitchurch Pony Club, on Ladybug. Michaela Brown of the Kawartha Pony Club was the Reserve, riding Cavalier.

Rachel Goodman and Ladybug also took the Champion's ribbon in Starter Freestyle, with Maxime Weiss of King the Reserve on Moonlight.

Jennifer McKeen of the Oshawa Pony Club was the Pre-Training Champion, riding Annie. Another Oshawa rider, Erin Thompson, was the Reserve on Everyone Loves Lily.

Yet another Oshawa rider, Rachel Welsh, was the Training Champion aboard Pippi Longstocking. Madison Wilks of the Durham Pony Club was the Reserve, riding Mega Cool.

In the Training Freestyle Division, Samantha MacDonald of the Uxbridge-Scugog Pony Club was the Champion riding Heart of Gold, with another Uxbridge-Scugog duo, Whitney Brennan and Karoo, in the Reserve spot.

In the First Level A Division, Katie Stephenson and Tybalt of the Maple Pony Club were Champions, with Kayla Neil of Durham the Reserve on Adara.

Jennifer McKeen of Oshawa collected another Champion's ribbon, this time for First Level Freestyle, and this time riding Colwyn Tegan. The Reserve was Stephanie Rutherford of the Baltimore Hills Pony Club riding Falkenfels.

Johanna McKeen of Oshawa was also twice a Champion, in Second Level A and Second Level Freestyle. There were no Reserves in these Divisions.

The Second Level B Champion was Daina Brown of Kawartha riding Moonwalker, again with no Reserve.

High Point winner was Jennifer McKeen riding Annie.

Show Jumping

Show Jumping presented not just Champion and Reserve awards for year-end results, but ribbons to tenth place, and also Champions' awards for the Regional Finals. Full details are at the end of this newsletter, but we will deal with Champions and Reserves here.

Year-End

In the Pre-Entry Division A-1, the Champion was Alexandra Reynolds of Kawartha, riding She's Like the Wind. The Reserve was Kylie Figueira of the Victoria Pony Club on Go for Cool

Jessica Clarke of the Ajax Pony Club was the Pre-Entry Division A-2 Champion on Van Gogh, with Angie Moorcroft, also of Ajax, the Reserve riding Cadbury.

Jennifer McKeen and Annie collected another Champion's ribbon for the Pre-Entry Division B, with Emma Lemay-Nedjelski of Ajax the Reserve aboard Jalapeno.

Jennifer McKeen was also the Entry Division Champion, this time riding Mya. The Reserve was Lauren Kelly of Victoria on Skylark.

The Starter Champion was Sean Cruikshanks of Uxbridge-Scugog on Cennabarr, with Stephanie Crawford of the Pickering Pony Club the Reserve riding Black Edition.

Katelyn Powell of Durham took the Championship in the Beginner Division on Sundance. The Reserve was Jennalyn Webber of Uxbridge-Scugog on My Prince Charming.

In the Novice Division, the Champion was Samantha MacDonald of Uxbridge-Scugog riding Heart of Gold, with Emily Mitchell of Maple the Reserve on Lady Marmalade.

The high point award for the show jumping year went to Katelyn Powell and Sundance, of the Durham Pony Club.

Regional Finals

The Champions at the Regional Finals were: Kylie Figueira and Go for Cool of Victoria in the Pre-Entry Division A-1; Jessica Clarke and Van Gogh of Ajax in the Pre-Entry Division A-2; Jennifer McKeen and Annie of Oshawa in the Pre-Entry Division B; Lauren Kelly and Skylark of Victoria in the Entry Division; Kayla Neil and Adara of Durham in the Starter Division; Katelyn Powell and Sundance of Durham in the Beginner Division; and Madeleine Baker of Toronto & North York in the Novice Division.

D Rally

Unfortunately, there was no A/B/C rally this year, so D Rally is all we have to report on.

At the D level, Rachel Goodman of the Whitchurch Pony Club was the winner riding her pony Ladybug. Second place went to Jessica McDonnell of the Ajax Pony Club on Champagne Cocktail, with Sarah Nason of the Maple Pony Club third riding Dillon.

Rachel Welsh of the Oshawa Pony Club won the D1 Division on Pippi Longstocking.

Second place went to Emma Goodman of the Whitchurch Pony Club riding Ceulan Caitlin, and Jennifer McKeen of the Oshawa Pony Club took third place on Mya. At the D2 level, the highest in this competition, the winner was Hannah Galway of the Maple Pony Club riding Phineas. Lauren Kelly of the Victoria Pony Club was second aboard Skylark, and third place went to Ilona Parenteau of the Toronto & North York Pony Club on Anastasia. This year's Stable Management Award winner was the Whitchurch Pony Club.

PPG

This was a particularly successful year for Central Ontario in Prince Philip and Masters Games.

- A mixed Uxbridge-Scugog and Durham Masters team won the national championship, with the Uxbridge-Scugog "Charlie's Angels" team finishing fifth. These two teams got to the national championship by winning and placing second in the Central Canada Zone finals. Congratulations to the Champs, Mike Durward (Playing Coach), Jesse Durward and Lorraine Smith, all of Uxbridge-Scugog, plus Katie Murray and Rebecca Simmons of Durham. Allison Pascoe was the Assistant Coach. Congratulations also to "Charlie's Angels," Allison Birdsall, Jessica Lloyd, Darlene Smith, Aly Stalk and Jade Stalk (coach's name not available). Photo from the National Masters Championship provided by Judi Edwards.

- At the A level, the Uxbridge-Scugog Pony Club "Fast and Furious" team took top spot in the Central Canada Zones and went on to finish second (by two lousy points) in the national A championship. The members of the "Fast and Furious" are Kathleen Barnes, Luke Durward, Kaylin Nauta, Laura Parliament and Madison Reeves. They were coached by Lisa Pascoe, 22, who was part of last year's Canadian Masters Games Championship team, the Uxbridge-Scugog "Cowboys." Other Central Ontario teams did very well at the Zone finals. A combined Temiskaming/Northwoods Pony Clubs team took third spot and the Uxbridge-Scugog "Incredibles" finished fourth with 60 points. All and all, then, Central Ontario teams took first, third and fourth in a field of six. Not bad at all!

- Not just one, but two Central Ontario riders were chose for the 2006 Canadian PPG team, which will compete against national teams from Australia, Great Britain and the United States for world supremacy in Britain next year. Shauna Chester, a member of the Temiskaming Pony Club, and Jessica McVittie, a member of the Uxbridge-Scugog Pony Club, won their spots on the team at a national try-out camp held earlier this month in Surrey, B.C. Shauna Chester reports, "My weekend was great! When we arrived in Vancouver a judge picked up me, Jessica and another girl from Guelph, Erin. We went on a tour around Southlands. Then we went back to Margo's house, the judge. All the girls came, we met and had supper. There was Colby from Vancouver, Kelsey from Alberta, Heather from Alberta, Andrea from Ontario, Erin from Ontario, and Jessica. After supper we went in groups of two and three to our billeted families. On Friday we did try outs and vaulting. Everybody was really nervous and was making a lot of mistakes. After try outs we went to Colby's house for a B.B.Q. On Saturday everybody wasn't so nervous and rode a lot better. This day was my best day. After riding we went into a building and had our interview. That went well. After that we went to Colby's house to get ready to go to Grouse Mountain and the Spaghetti factory. On the mountain we got to see bears and wolves, and a comedy lumberjack show. It was so cold! And then we went to the Spaghetti Factory...it was so good. On Sunday we finished our tryouts, it was like a fun day but still being judged. Everybody rode really well on this day. It was so sad to say good bye to everybody when they left. I had a really fun weekend because of the experience and getting to meet everybody and make friends."

Let's not forget our own Regional season!

At the A level, the Uxbridge-Scugog "Incredibles" won the Regional championship, with a combined Temiskaming/Northwoods team second and the Uxbridge-Scugog "Fast & Furious" third. The members of the "Incredibles" were Whitney Brennan, Mori Cruikshanks, Sean Cruikshanks, Samantha MacDonald and Jessica McVittie.

In the Masters competition, the mixed Uxbridge-Scugog/Durham team finished on top, with the Uxbridge-Scugog "Charlie's Angels" second and a mixed Simcoe/Temiskaming team third.

The Uxbridge-Scugog "Terminators" took the honours at the B level, with a mixed Durham/Waussnodae team second and Maple third. The members of the "Terminators" were Jane Stephenson, Michael Nauta, Kendra Abbey and James Cruikshanks.

At the C level, Victoria Pony Club was first, a mixed Uxbridge-Scugog/Arête de Chêne team second and Simcoe "Chargers" third. And a good time was had by all. The members of Victoria's Championship team were Erin Pillsworth, Colin Oldridge, Jamie Figueira, Meg Scott and Amanda Jackman.

Tetrathlon

As Tetrathlon is a one-time, one-day event, its awards are usually handed out on the spot instead of at the banquet. We nevertheless recognize the winners at the Regional and National level here.

First the Regional results: Among the Senior A Men, first place went to James McCue of the Victoria Pony Club, with all other competitors in this Division eliminated at the riding stage. Kourtney Matysek of the Victoria Pony Club finished first among the Senior A Women, with Kathryn Robertson of the Uxbridge-Scugog Pony Club second and Karen Foell of the Toronto & North York Pony Club third. At the Junior A level Luke Durward of Uxbridge-Scugog was the only finisher among the men. Samantha Galway of the Maple Pony Club finished first among the Junior A women (defending the title she won last year), with another Maple competitor, Amber Wavryk, second and Alexandra Kelly of the Victoria Pony Club in third place. Among the Novice Men there was again only one competitor to escape elimination. He was James Simmons of the Durham Pony Club. Hannah Galway of the Maple Pony Club was the winner among the Novice Women. Another Maple competitor, Kristina Wavryk, finished second, with Kylie Figueira of the Victoria Pony Club third.

We do not have team results from the Regional Tetrathlon as yet. We will post an updated version of COR Bits as soon as we get them.

Nationally, Victoria Pony Club members Zac and James McCue finished first and fourth, respectively, in the Senior Men Division. Together with a Junior rider from British Columbia, they also took first place in the men's team competition (which is based on combined scores from the Senior and Junior Divisions). Central Ontario had no entries in the Junior Men Division. Central Ontario did not fare quite so well in the Senior and Junior Women Divisions, but on a team basis came fifth and sixth. Among the Senior Women, Karen Foell of the Toronto & North York Pony Club had the best finish at eleventh. Samantha Galway of the Maple Pony Club finished fifth among the Junior Women, while Alexandra Kelly of the Victoria Pony Club was sixth.

Quiz

On Saturday, May 7, members of 17 Pony Club Branches took part in the Central Ontario Region Quiz at Keswick High School in Keswick. Final team standings follow. At the A/B level a mixed Prince Edward County/Uxbridge-Scugog/ Waussnodae team took first, with Maple second and Eglinton in third spot. At the C level a mixed Prince Edward County/Uxbridge-Scugog team finished first, Eglinton came second and King was third. In the D2 competition Ajax came in first, with Whitchurch second and Oshawa third. At the D1 level, first place went to the Northwoods team, with Simcoe second and Pickering third. Eglinton took first at the D level, with Ajax second and Centaurus third. In the display projects, which are combined Branch efforts with competitors from all levels taking part, Ajax was the winner.

The top four individual competitors at the A/B and C levels qualified to represent Central Ontario at the National Quiz in Ottawa on Thanksgiving weekend (subject to the winners' availability, and unfortunately, some of these winners could not be available for National). At the D2 level, ribbons went to the top individual competitors. The top Regional Quiz individual placings were:

A/B Level - Maya Kenedy of Maple, Allison Birdsall of Uxbridge-Scugog, Megan Mattos of Waussnodae and Brian McInnes of Eglinton.

C Level - Carolyn Wight of Prince Edward County, Alicia Cantin of Eglinton, Christy Chamney of Maple and Dawn O'Neill of Ajax.

D2 Level - Kristiana Cope of Whitchurch, Emily Gillies of Ajax, Johanna McKeen of Oshawa and Jessica McDonnell of Ajax.

Central Ontario in fact sent a three-member A/B team to National Quiz, plus two more A/B competitors who formed a mixed team with a Manitoba competitor, plus a full C team.

And they covered themselves with glory. Maya Kenedy placed first out of 33 A/B level competitors, and led the Central Ontario Region's A/B team to a first place finish. Other members of this team were Megan Mattos and Allison Birdsall. The other Central Ontario teams did not fare quite as well, with both the mixed Central Ontario/Manitoba A/B team and the Central Ontario C team finishing a respectable ninth.

The two COR members on the mixed A/B were Philip Lewis and Katie Stephenson, both of the Maple Pony Club. The C team was as listed above.

One of the neat features of this year's National Quiz is that SLOV introduced some new quiz stations which were a big hit with everyone. Way to go, SLOV! This one is called "Kiss the Mountie," featuring Katie Stephenson as what most people would think of as a pretty unlikely Mountie. One of the reasons why your humble Editor could not resist including this picture is that, when I was DC at the Eglinton Pony Club, just after the earth's crust had cooled in the early 1990s, one of "my" pony clubbers was another red-headed Katie, Kate M. (since she has been out of Pony Club for years, she did not sign our release form and I had better not use her name on the internet without permission). And guess what Kate M. does now that she is all grown up - that's right, she's a Mountie! You just never know, do you?

Thanks to Sally Chamney for the photos!

Karen Meuleman Award

This trophy is presented in honour of a member of the former Leitchcroft Pony Club, who was killed in an automobile accident on her way to enter a dressage show. Each Branch is invited to nominate a member who best meets the ideals of Pony Club in his or her participation in activities, sportsmanship and effort, support of others and progress in riding and horsemanship during the current year.

This year's winner is Dawn O'Neill of the Ajax Pony Club. Here is an edited version of her Branch's reasons for nominating her.

Dawn has been a loyal, enthusiastic and dedicated member of the Ajax Pony Club for 11 years, and has her C level. She has her Basic Instructor and is also working towards achieving her Level 1 coaching level. Dawn possesses all the requirements for this award. At Ajax, Dawn is like the big sister to all members. She is always willing to help and offer her advice to all members, including returning and new members. The members have the utmost respect for her. They look up to her with great admiration. This year, Dawn was unfortunately put in a position of not being able to compete in Regional jumper shows, as there wasn't a qualified horse for her to compete with. But that didn't stop her from attending every show in which Ajax participated, as a cheerleader supporting the Ajax entries. She was there bright and early with a smile on her face, encouraging each and every rider and congratulating them on a job well done. That says a lot about her character - it is not all about competing and getting ribbons, but the support and camaraderie among fellow members and dedication to our Pony Club. Dawn has been to all events this year, either participating as a competitor or offering support to all other members. This includes education lectures, social events, Quiz, D Rally and Regional jumper shows. She qualified to go to National Quiz this year after placing fourth overall at the C level at Regional Quiz. Dawn is one of the educational lecturers at our club. She has done an outstanding job teaching and tutoring the new members all about horsemanship, and she does it in a way that keeps the members riveted, focused and wanting to learn more. She always has a smile on her face and is always there to lend a hand and cheer you on. She has been our non-riding Captain for a few years at D Rally; she can keep the girls focused but still have fun while doing it. Dawn also teaches beginners to ride, and her enthusiasm for Pony Club has in turn helped our club to grow with recruiting new members each year. She has been an inspiration to all members with her great attitude and her accomplishments in Pony Club. She is very dedicated in sharing her knowledge of Pony Club with anyone. She has also participated in fundraising efforts for her club with great passion. She is the first one to congratulate you on doing an excellent job, whether it is grooming your horse or riding. Dawn is what we consider to be the ideal image of an exceptional pony clubber and a great role model. We as parents are glad that our daughters are fellow members of hers and that they have the opportunity to learn from her diverse knowledge, her great accomplishments and her love for Pony Club.

Chair's Award

This year, Regional Chair Bill Murray announced two winners of the Chair's Award - Rhonda Hutcheson and Mary-Debra Parady. Both these ladies served as discipline Chairs in 2005, Rhonda for Rallies and Mary-Debra for Show Jumping. More than that, both were deeply involved in Central Ontario's part in hosting the Inter-Pacific Exchange and in other aspects of the Pony Club year. We join with Bill in offering a great big thank-you to both of them.

"Double Dippers"

As usual, we like to give a special salute to those who won major awards in more than one discipline. This year we seem to have had a bumper crop. Starting with the "triple dippers," and after that in no particular order, here is a list of those who distinguished themselves in this fashion..

- Jennifer McKeen of Oshawa: Dressage, Show Jumping and D-Rally.
- Samantha MacDonald of Uxbridge-Scugog: Dressage, Show Jumping and PPG.
- Rachel Goodman of Whitchurch: Dressage and D-Rally
- Rachel Welsh of Oshawa: Dressage and D-Rally.
- Whitney Brennan of Uxbridge-Scugog: Dressage and PPG.
- Katie Stephenson of Maple: Dressage and Quiz.
- Kayla Neil of Durham: Dressage and Show Jumping.
- Johanna McKeen of Oshawa: Dressage and Quiz.
- Kylie Figueira of Victoria: Dressage and Tetrathlon.
- Lauren Kelly of Victoria: Show Jumping and D-Rally.
- Sean Cruikshanks of Uxbridge-Scugog: Show Jumping and PPG.
- Jessica McDonnell of Ajax: D-Rally and Quiz.
- Hannah Galway of Maple: D-Rally and Tetrathlon.
- Allison Birdsall of Uxbridge-Scugog: PPG and Quiz.
- Luke Durward of Uxbridge-Scugog: Tetrathlon and PPG.

A Preview of Coming Attractions

Some people may think that, with the show season all wrapped up, the fires of Pony Club in Central Ontario have been kind of damped down to a few not-too-brightly glowing embers.

Nothing could be further from the truth. Here are some of the things we will be covering in the next issue of COR Bits.

The Royal Winter Fair

Once again this year, the Royal has provided tickets for Pony Club's use, to the Central Ontario, Western Ontario and Saint Lawrence-Ottawa Valley regions. We give our tickets to members who have represented the Region at the Zone, National and International level, plus key volunteers. Pony Club night at the Royal is always a good time, not only because we get to watch some neat stuff, but also because we get to say hello to friends from the other Regions. Rumour has it that some people get in a bit of shopping. I wouldn't know about that.

And for the second year, Pony Club is taking part in the demonstration area, and has a "booth" to explain who we are and what we do. Last year, PPG proved to be one of the most popular demonstrations among the spectators, who may not have liked it quite so much if they had realized how close they were to death or injury, because the space allowed for PPG was too small. One brake-failure and a pony would have been out among the food booths. This year, thank goodness, more space has been allowed, which should make for a better - and safer - show. Rumour has it that this year's booth will also include a couple of quiz stations - no Mounties to be kissed, though.

At last word, volunteers were still needed for the Pony Club booth on Saturday, November 12 and Sunday, November 13. Get in touch with Debbie Robertson or Maisie Durward if you can help out.

The Canadian Pony Club Semi-Annual Meeting

This takes place in Toronto November 11-15, mostly at the Board level. This isn't the CPC Annual General Meeting, where we are all invited to attend; that's in April. Parts of the meeting on Saturday, November 12 are open to those of us not gallivanting around the Royal. Several important bits of business are going to get done at the SAM, which brings us to ...

Branch Rules & Regulations

The final template for Branch Rules & Regulations is scheduled for "final reading" at the SAM. Once approved, it will be circulated to all Branches for study and adaptation. (I just know this is the news you have all been waiting for!) Branches should make sure that they adapt the template to their own needs while staying onside with the Canadian Pony Club By-Laws, the Canadian Pony Club Operations Manual and Policy Handbook, and the Central Ontario Regional Rules & Regulations. And keep in mind that, if you don't have your Branch Rules & Regulations approved by the COR Regional Committee in time, you automatically default to the template with a few blanks filled in.

Now, every Branch that I know of has at least one "Sky Lawyer" - you know, the one who questions every decision and thinks he or she knows all the rules off by heart. Here's a suggestion. As soon as the SAM is over and the final template is circulated, put that person in charge of coming up with draft Rules & Regulations for your Branch. All the documents with which they must conform are available for downloading. So hand them the template, wish them the best of the season, and take potshots at - I mean, review - their efforts at your January meeting. Such fun! (Just kidding.)

The Central Ontario Region Annual General Meeting

We hold our own AGM on November 19 at Durham College, with an excursion to Windfields laid on for a limited number of the Active Members (last chance to tour it before it is entirely paved over). At this meeting, we will be saying thanks and goodbye to some volunteers who have served the Region for years, and welcoming some new people onto the Committee, either as new District Commissioners or as Chairs of some activity or another.

Also at the AGM, in the afternoon, we will be debating some key issues that could affect the way we go about our Pony Club business for years to come. One of these is the balance between competition and education. Some people feel that, compared to past years, our focus has shifted too much towards competitive activities at the expense of teaching our Active Members how to care for their horses/ponies and how to ride properly. Others disagree. The AGM is your chance to put in your two cents worth, in favour of one or the other of these points of view. If you cannot make it to the AGM, you should e-mail Bill Murray, our Regional Chair, to let him know what you think. The other main issue is what the Region should expect from individuals and Branches. This includes ways of improving communication, how to slot the right volunteer into the right job and so forth. It's all useful, serious stuff and not to be missed if at all possible.

Here, as promised, are the details of the year-end show jumping awards.

In closing, even though this is being written near to Halloween, I would like to wish one and all a Merry Christmas, or Happy Chanukah, or Delightful Diwali, or Karefree Kwanzaa, or Ecstatic Eid, or Sensational Saturnalia, or All-the-Best-to-Anyone-I've-Left-Out.
