

Reading for 'D', 'D1' & 'D2' Levels

Candidates, Examiners, test organizers and instructors should all be familiar with the Requirements for all 'D' Levels as listed in the Testing Procedures, and with the following:

REQUIRED READING LIST	RESOURCE READING LIST
E to D1 USPC D Manual Manual of Horsemanship, 11th or 12th Ed. D2 All of the above plus C/D Testing Procedures (2005) USPC C Manual NOTE: Members are responsible for all reading material up to and including their current level.	E to D1 Happy Horsemanship D2 Horsemaster's Notebook 3rd or 4th Ed. (vet section not approved) Know Your Horse Saddlery Riding and Road Sense Keeping A Pony at Grass Training the Young Horse & Pony Are You Ready - One and Two Threshold Guides Discipline Rules Provincial Highway Rules (that apply to horses) NOTE: The resource list is made of acceptable reading materials for extra information. Test questions will only be taken from the required reading list.